

lea and Sunflower Y5 Classes : Spring 2 Newslet

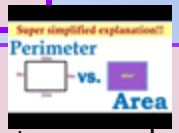

What will we be learning this half term?

English

This half term we will be learning about The Highwayman poem. We will also be looking at other poetry texts and will add their features into our writing. We will learn about fiction and non-fiction texts by reading about a range of topics in Guided Reading.

Mathematics

We will be learning about percentages and decimals. We will also be learning more about calculating the area and perimeter of different shapes. We will continue to work on fluency of the four operations.

Phonics/Spelling

This half term we will be focusing on the Year 5 and 6 common misconception words as well as investigating how suffixes can change the way we spell words.

Recommended Reads

With world book day in March, make sure you take time to think about books you have read that bring you happiness. Poetry books are a different style of reading you for you all to try!
